

Ms. Paula Crider

Professor Emeritus
University of Texas

My experience with the talented young musicians at South Central Regional Music Conference was extremely positive. This event provides the opportunity for both students and directors to engage in the joys of making music. Mark Walker and the many directors who dedicate their time and energies to this event are to be congratulated for providing an opportunity for all involved to share their knowledge and passion for music.

